committed to QUALITY

Over ten years, Mawer Construction has provided top notch new-build, renovation, and insurance work to Charlotte County and has done so with integrity and customer service as their top priority.

In owner Brian Mawer's words, "We cater to quality. We don't cut corners. We read, explore, and investigate trade journals to find the newest techniques and materials, because building to code is only the bare minimum. With decades of combined trades experience on staff, we go beyond code to deliver the best quality."

At the heart of Mawer Construction is the desire to serve the local economy.

They hire locally as well as buy materials locally. "It feels good driving the economy and helping other peoples families by being able to provide employment to local folks...and the business feeds the local economy by buying all materials and subcontracting locally. It's a fantastic feeling to contribute locally because the better anybody does in this community the better everybody does."

If you have renovation needs, insurance covered repairs, claims, or are looking to build, Mawer Construction can see you through from start to finish.
